

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF AUSTRALIA

NAA: A1200, L11181A.

Little Digger – Billy Hughes' life and legacy

Join historian Dr David Headon for an illuminating lecture exploring William Morris 'Billy' Hughes, known as the 'Little Digger', who remains one of Australia's most debated prime ministers.

Enjoy an evening of canapés and conversation delving into Hughes's life and gain a behind-the-scenes glimpse into how history is made and shared in the latest lecture of the First Eight Project series. This event will also address Hughes' many facets, with particular attention to his personal life.

Date: Wednesday 2 April

Time: 5:30 to 7pm AEDT

National Archives National Office

East Block, Kings Avenue

Parkes ACT 2600

